want to learn more about Japanese culture!

Comment from last year's registered teacher

"This "Sekai ga Sensei" project is very useful and enjoyable. While interacting in activities with the children at school, I have an opportunity to introduce my country and also learn new things from them. It has been a great experience."

In addition to the "Sekai ga Sensei (The World Is the Teacher)"
A Cross-Cultural Learning Project, you can enjoy various other interactive events.

We recommend you apply for this project first.

“Sekai ga Sensei (The World Is the Teacher)” A Cross-Cultural Learning Project

What kind of project is it?

International students (graduate and undergraduate) studying in Niigata Prefecture will be asked to visit schools, community centers, or other facilities in Nagaoka City as lecturers in order to promote mutual understanding among participants through learning about each other's history, culture, lifestyle, and customs.

What activities are expected?

International students will be asked to give lectures or presentations to participants about your country in various ways, for instance by:

- showing photographs using slides.
- showing your ethnic outfits and letting participants wear them.
- introducing music from your country by playing CDs.
- introducing ethnic dishes by cooking with participants.
- having a good time with participants by playing games from your country.

For further information, you can use the QR code(Website) on the front.

A coordinator from the Nagaoka City International Affairs Center will support you throughout the entire process, from the request for your lecture to accompanying you to the event site, so you do not need to worry.
